We Need Women Leaders to Solve
Global Challenges

At our next meeting, AAUW Member Kathleen Cha will talk about her recent experiences at the UN March 2018 Meeting of the Commission on the Status of Women (#62) as a representative of AAUW at the United Nations.

As a nongovernmental organization, AAUW has special consultative status with the UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs. AAUW's representatives attend briefings, organize events, and participate in coalitions to act on issues that impact girls and women: access to education & training, women's economic security, human trafficking, and ending the gender pay gap, and increasing girls' and women's opportunities in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.
