

PROGRESS MADE by GOOD TROUBLE

Passionate Voice for EQUITY

What would you do if you won your US Supreme Court Pay Equity case?

Come hear Aileen Rizo's story of her 8-year fight for pay equity, and how she remains a passionate voice for equity, diversity, and inclusiveness.

Aileen was born in Phoenix, Arizona and embraces both her Native American and Mexican heritage. First in her family to finish college, she earned master's degrees in educational technology and Mathematics Education. Aileen spent 23 years working in mathematics education striving to close academic achievement gaps, and promoting groups underrepresented in STEM fields. In 2012, she began a fight, supported in part by AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund, for pay equity and became an advocate for the economic security of women in our state and throughout the country. She is a wife and mother of three girls currently working as the Associate Director of The AIMS Center for Math and Science, plus pursuing a PhD in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) Education.

THURSDAY • FEB 18 • 6:30 PM

Register in Advance

<https://tinyurl.com/AileenRizo>

Hosted by Alameda County Inter-Branch Council.

After registering you will receive an email with instructions about joining the meeting.

Call (510) 435-6150. Admission is free

Event is open to the public.

For information about donating to the AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund, see <http://bit.ly/LAFdonateRizo>

AAUW advances gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.